Mrs. Florence Slate

Death came suddenly to Mrs. Florence Slate, wife of William W. Slate, of Warwick Ave., on Tuesday morning, May 14. She suffered a heart attack at her home. She was born in Florence the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Miller and came to Northfield to reside shortly after her marriage. Mrs. Slate was a member of the Congregational Church and of the Fortnightly Club in this town. She had many friends both here and in Florence who mourn her loss. Surviving, besides her husband, are a sister, Mrs. David Topham, of Springfield, and a brother, Robert Miller, of Longmeadow. She was a niece of Professor and Mrs. F. C. Shearn, of Florence. Funeral services attended by many friends were held at Kidders Funeral Home Thursday afternoon with the Rev. Joseph W. Reeves officiating and burial was in the Park Cemetery at Florence. Bearers were George, Harold, William and Russell Bigelow, her nephews.

Republican Women

All women of this town who are enrolled as Republicans or who are in sympathy with the principles of the Republican party, are invited to become members of the local organization upon the payment of 25 cents. Mrs. Allen H. Wright is the director for Northfield of the Franklin County Women's Republican Club and will have as her associates Mrs. Carroll H. Miller and Mrs. Edgar Livingston. The club will hold a dinner meeting on Saturday, June 1, at 12.30 o'clock when the guest speaker will be Lieut. Gov. Robert T. Bradford, who is the Republican candidate for Governor at the coming state election. It is expected that Mrs. Bradford will accompany him on his visit to Greenfield. Memberships may be sent to members of the local committee at any time with the small fee.

Church Guild Annual

The organization of women of the local Congregational church, formerly called the Women's Societies, is now known as the Church Guild and comprises the Friendly class, the Missionary Society, the Sewing Society, the Evening Auxiliary and other organizations of women within the church membership. The annual meeting was held Thursday afternoon, May 16, at the church and after reports had been given, officers were chosen for the ensuing year. Mrs. Maude Montague, president; Mrs. Katherine Livingston, first vice president; Mrs. Louise Reeves, second vice president; Mrs. Dorothy Mann, recording secretary; Mrs. Isabel Carter, treasurer; Mrs.

New Hermon Dormitory

According to the architect's design the new dormitory to be erected on the campus of Mount Hermon School will add much to the character and dignity of the grounds. Just as soon as building materials are available the work of construction will be started. The building will be of substantial materials and will be located on the knoll southwest of Crossley. The cost of the building has already been provided for from a reserve fund. The building will provide for the accommodation of eighty students, will contain rooms for two teachers and the master and his family. There will be three floors and basement. The structure will be Colonial in plan with facing of Harvard brick and corners trimmed with quoins. Hermon marches forward.

Ina Merriman, auditor; Miss Helen Handy, friendly service committee chairman; Mrs. Carrie Jeannette Carr, program committee; Miss Mercy Brann, hospitality committee; Mrs. Margaret Larrabee, ways and means committee; Mrs. Dorothy Whitney, housekeeping and equipment committee. On the supper committee is Miss Sophie Servaes, Mrs. Eleanor Reed, Mrs. Helen Stearns, Mrs. Claire Cochran, Mrs. Esther Leonard, Mrs. Marion Given, Mrs. Isabel Carter and Mrs. Doris Bolton; nominating committee for one year, Mrs. Charlotte Wright; two years, Mrs. Mabel Johnson, and three years, Mrs. Lillian B. Wells.

More Library Books

The trustees of the Dickinson Memorial Library have added another lot of new books for circulation and compiled by the librarian is as follows:

"Great Age of Literature," by Edith Hamilton; "My Three Years With Eisenhower," H. C. Butcher; "One Humanity," H. E. Kershner; "Roman Way," Edith Hamilton; "Rudyard Kipling," Hilton Brown; "Soldiers of God," Christopher Cross; "Starling of the White House," E. W. Starling; "Close to My Heart," Margaret Nichols; "County Mouse," Mrs. L. A. Kent; "Fifth Man," Manning Coles; "Friendly Persuasion," Jessamyn West; "General Duty Nurse," L. A. Hancock; "Long Road," Natalie Shipman; "Mrs. Palmer's Honey," Fannie Cook; "Old Doc," Elizabeth Seifert; "Pavilion," Hilda Lawrence; "Prairie Pioneers," Lynn Westland; "Skullduggery on Halfaday Creek," J. Buys In Barnardston

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harris, who sold their property and grocery in South Vernon last fall and went to Florida for the winter, returned recently and now it is announced that he has purchased the business conducted for thirty years from Lynn A. Wyatt in Barnardston and will conduct the same under the name of Harris and Son as a grocery and market. Friends are pleased that the Harris family are to relocate in this vicinity.

Food Collection Now

The nation-wide emergency food collection is now in full swing under the direction of a committee of which Mrs. Ruth Cambalisky is chairman, in Northfield. Boxes for the deposit of monies may be found at most business places here including the Postoffices. Also large boxes will be placed in Postoffices for the receipt of canned foods. Checks may be sent to Mrs. Edgar Livingston, who is treasurer of the committee. Henry A. Wallace and former President Herbert Hoover say the need to feed the starving in war-torn lands is great and we must help to save them. Northfield will surely do its share.

Dana Vesper Service

At the Unitarian Church Sunday evening, the 19th, the Dana Universalist vesper group presented a music service to a large audience. In addition to the selections offered by the group, there was a baritone solo by Eric Anderson of the Worcester Epworth Methodist Church, and by Mrs. Helena Gibson, contralto, of the First Church of Christ Scientist, also of Worcester. Harold W. Brown, of Athol, who is the director of the Dana group, is also the organist.

The unit was founded January 27, 1929, by the First Universalist parish of North Dana and is maintained by the interest from an endowment fund placed with the Massachusetts Universalist convention by the Dana parish as a permanent memorial to the Dana church.
